ENERGY & MATTER

The background is a complex, abstract pattern of swirling green and yellow-green colors, resembling marbled paper or a microscopic view of a biological structure. The colors transition from deep forest green to bright lime green and pale yellow. A central, darker green, valley-like shape is prominent, with lighter, more textured areas around it. The overall effect is organic and dynamic.

VALLEY
CHLOROPLAST

An abstract painting with a rich, textured surface. The color palette is dominated by warm tones: deep reds, vibrant oranges, and bright yellows. The brushstrokes are visible and expressive, creating a sense of movement and depth. In the center, there is a faint, face-like form that appears to be emerging from the swirling colors. The overall effect is one of intense energy and emotional resonance.
